Footnotes:

^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

^{2/} In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically with the Secretary of State if, since January 1, 2000, the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's website at www.ss.ca.gov.

^{3/} "Election cycle" is defined as 90 days prior to an election and ending on the date of the election. If no runoff election is held, the election cycle will end on April 11, 2006. Candidates who have filed electronic election cycle reports disclosing contributions received during the 90-day election cycle are not required to also file late contribution reports (on paper) for those contributions.

^{4/} “Late contributions” include contributions made to a state or county central committee during the 16-day period prior to any state election. (Also see footnote 3.)

^{5/} A controlled committee of a candidate may not make independent expenditures to support or oppose other candidates.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Deadlines for late contribution and late independent expenditure reports may not be extended. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.

Candidates should refer to the FPPC Campaign Information Manual for state candidates (Manual 1) to determine their filing obligations. Other committees should refer to Manual C, D, or E, as appropriate, along with the 2005 Campaign Manual Addendum. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.
